3. Discussion/Action Points

- After some concern over court usage Birmingham University, it was agreed the British Junior Closed would go ahead as planned in January 2022
- Nigel Orrett to follow up England Squash regional funding application AP: NO
- Schools Programme – Nigel to send information from Ben Schur, Shropshire to Bhwana AP: NO
- Refereeing courses, provided by Mo, available to all clubs. Also, ES offer on-line courses as an alternative
- Senior ICC funding available for teams. Criteria and funding levels to be documented. Chris Hall to follow up with County Captains AP: CH
- Junior ICC teams entered in all categories. All teams made it through their groups into the next round
- Squash United by Birmingham 2022 is a dynamic environment with much activity – headed by Ming Lee who is doing a sterling job and we believe both Warwickshire and Squash will reap the benefit for years to come
- Masters' teams – Captains have been nominated and Andy Murray will follow up regarding expectations AP: AM
- Use of the ES 101 App – Chris Hall will re-enforce with club Captains once he knows the app is live AP: NO/CH
- Discussion regarding ways of increasing participation at Warwickshire County Closed events. Ming suggested playing the finals on the glass court at Grand Central in April – earlier rounds to be played in advance. All committee members asked to provide their thoughts to Nigel by 17th December, after which a small Focus Group will meet to take forward. See email from Nigel 7th Dec 2021. AP: ALL
